

FRIENDS OF KIRKWOOD PUBLIC LIBRARY SPONSORS
“KILLER” FUNDRAISER FEATURING RIDLEY PEARSON

KIRKWOOD, MO, April 2010 –Friends of the Kirkwood Public Library is sponsoring “A Killer Evening” fundraiser featuring New York Times best-selling author Ridley Pearson on Tuesday, May 11, at the Greenbriar Hills Country Club.

Among Pearson’s best-selling crime novels are: “Killer Weekend”, “Killer View” and “Killer Summer”. Besides being the author of more than 25 crime novels, Pearson is also the author of a number of series of books for young readers, including the “Starcatcher” series co-written with humorist Dave Barry.

Pearson’s keynote address at the fundraiser is titled “From Flaming Fingernails to Peter Pan: An Author’s Journey”. Pearson’s presentation will be at 8 p.m., preceded by dinner at 7 p.m. and a silent auction at 6 p.m.

Tickets are $50 for Friends’ members and $60 for non-members. Proceeds will benefit the Kirkwood Public Library. The deadline for reservations is Tuesday, May 4. Call (314) 821-5770, Ext. 1023 for more information. The reservation form is available at the library on the event poster and a link to it can also be found at www.kirkwoodpubliclibrary.org.

# #